IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Colorado sets new record for marijuana sales in a single year

DENVER, Colo. - February 10, 2022 - The Colorado Department of Revenue (CDOR) released December 2021 marijuana sales figures and January 2022 marijuana tax and fee revenue figures, and reports a new record for marijuana sales in a single year. In 2021, Colorado reports over $2.22 billion from marijuana sales (compared to the previous record of over $2.19 billion in 2020). Here is the summary:

Date	Marijuana Tax and Fee Revenue
January 2022	$30,781,021
January 2022 Calendar Year Total	$30,781,021
To Date Total (since February 2014)	$2,049,714,026

Date	Marijuana Sales
December 2021	$168,041,594
January - December 2021 Calendar Year Total	$2,228,994,553
To Date Total (since January 2014)	$12,207,788,626

The Marijuana Sales Reports summarize total sales made by medical and retail marijuana stores monthly by county. The Marijuana Tax Reports show state tax and fee revenue collected monthly as posted in the Colorado state accounting system. Tax revenue comes from the state sales tax (2.9%) on marijuana sold in stores, the state retail marijuana sales tax (15%) on retail marijuana sold in stores, and the state retail marijuana excise tax (15%) on wholesale sales/transfers of retail marijuana. Fee revenue comes from marijuana license and application fees.
