4. The Voting Securities held by Investment Company were acquired and are held for investment purposes only, and were acquired and are held in the ordinary course of business as an institutional investor and not for the purposes of causing, directly or indirectly, the election or appointment of any management member of Licensee. Nor are the Voting Securities held for the purpose of causing, directly or indirectly, any change in the chartering documents (including articles of incorporation, bylaws, and other documents), or other operating agreements, management, policies, or operations of the Licensee. Further, Investment Company acquired the Voting Securities disclosed above solely for investment purposes, and Investment Company has no involvement in the business activities of Licensee, nor does Investment Company have any intention of influencing or affecting, or participating in the affairs of the Licensee.

5. If Investment Company subsequently determines to influence or affect the affairs of the Licensee, it shall provide not less than 30 days written notice of such intent, and shall file with the Colorado Division of Gaming an application for associated person licensure before taking any action that may influence or affect the affairs of the Licensee; provided, however, that Investment Company shall be permitted to vote on matters put to the vote of the outstanding security holders at any time without providing notice to the Colorado Division of Gaming.

6. Investment Company acknowledges that it is bound by and shall comply with the Colorado Limited Gaming Act of 1991, and the regulations adopted thereunder, is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of Colorado, and consents to Colorado as the choice of forum in the event any dispute, question, or controversy arises regarding the application of this regulation.

7. On a separate page, identify the name, address, telephone number, date of birth, and social security, federal tax identification number, or foreign national identification number of the following classes of persons or entities:

- a. Any person or entity which possesses or controls, directly or indirectly, the beneficial ownership (including, but not limited to, Voting Securities and other equivalent) of 10% or more of Investment Company;
- b. Officers and directors, or their equivalent, of Investment Company;
- c. Any person or entity which has direct or indirect control over Investment Company's holdings of Voting Securities of Licensee;
- d. Any person or entity which has direct or indirect power to direct or control the Investment Company's exercise of its voting rights as a holder of Voting Securities of Licensee;
- e. Investment Company's affiliates.

8. On a separate page, identify all securities of the Licensee that are or were, directly or indirectly, beneficially owned by Investment Company (including its affiliates) within the preceding year, setting forth a description of the securities, their amount, and the dates of their acquisition and sale.

9. On a separate page, identify and list all regulatory agencies with which Investment Company (including its affiliates which beneficially owns Voting Securities of Licensee) files periodic reports, and the name, address, and telephone number of the person, if known, to contact at each agency regarding Investment Company's regulatory compliance.

10. On a separate page, disclose all criminal and regulatory sanctions imposed during the preceding ten years, and all administrative and court proceedings filed by any regulatory agency during the preceding five years, concerning Investment Company, its affiliates, any current officer or director, or any former officer or director whose tenure ended within the preceding twelve months. As pertains to any former officer or director, such information need only be provided to the extent it relates to actions arising out of or during such person's tenure with Investment Company (including its affiliates).

11. Attach a copy of any filing made pursuant to 15 U.S.C. section 18a, with respect to the acquisition or proposed acquisition of Voting Securities of the Licensee.

12. I certify that the statements made by me herein, and all attachments submitted herewith, are true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief, under penalty of perjury.
