We appreciate all of the thoughtful suggestions, and hard work in working group sessions this year. Below are links to both the “clean” version of the rules that we have discussed up to this point (without strikethroughs in order to enhance ease of review); and a link to the “redlined” versions of the two rules that we have made suggested changes to pursuant to last working group session. As you review, keep in mind that written comments and suggestions are always welcome at: dor led rulemaking@state.co.us
