Public Comment:

There will be three opportunities for public comment throughout the meeting, one following each section of rule proposals. Timing for each section may vary based on the discussion and number of comments, but the Division will do its best to stick to this schedule. The Division encourages interested stakeholders to sign up for public comment ahead of the hearing or during the hearing using this form. Individuals interested in making comments will be called on in the order they sign up and based on the topic they indicate they want to make comments on. Comments will alternate between online and in-person.

Other Information:

Please note: Written comments will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. on October 30, 2023. Any comments received after 5:00 p.m. on October 30th will not be considered for this rulemaking proceeding. Please submit written comments using this form.

Unless otherwise noted in the rule, rules adopted by the State Licensing Authority in this rulemaking proceeding will be effective on January 8, 2023, and will supersede all previous rules.

The Marijuana Enforcement Division and the State Licensing Authority appreciate your engagement in this process and encourage all interested stakeholders to attend and participate at the hearing on October 30, 2023.
