NEW BUSINESS:

PUBLIC COMMENTS:

The Motor Vehicle Dealer Board will allow for public comments at the end of the Board Meeting. They welcome you and thank you for your time and concerns. When given the opportunity please turn on your video, state your name and then you may address the Board. The Board may not respond to your comments. Personal attacks against Board Members, employees of the Auto Industry Division, or meeting presenters will not be tolerated. Please refrain from discussing specific complaints about licensees or alleged violations of licensees. The Board acts in a quasi-judicial capacity and discussing licensees and alleged conduct is not appropriate for public comments. Information about filing a complaint can be found here:
