Subject: Proposed Edit

September 30th, 2025

Good morning,

As briefly discussed at the State Tobacco Rules Working Group Session #3 Rule Update meeting on September 10, 2025, below is a proposed edit to Rule 7-100(K):

"RETAIL LOCATION" MEANS A LOCATION THAT ALLOWS FOR COMMERCIAL USE. A RETAIL LOCATION CANNOT BE A RESIDENTIAL LOCATION.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best Regards,

Brandon

Re: Proposed Edit

Mr. Sandberg,

Thank you for your comment. The Division plans on moving forward with its language, which states that the location "means a commercial location that allows a customer to enter the location." The Division believes that this language ensures that the location is a commercial space without having to account for zoning law complexities in different local jurisdictions.

If you have any further comments, please feel free to send them to the Division at this email address.

Sincerely,
Colorado Liquor Enforcement Division
