Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a licensed gaming employee. Before you submit your application, I want to make you aware of a few facts.

The gaming and sports betting industries in Colorado are among the most scrutinized businesses in the state. Colorado citizens want the gaming industry to be free of any corruption or deceit, which is why we take our regulation of the industry very seriously. Ensuring honesty and integrity in Colorado's gaming industry begins with licensure.

During the licensing process, we will thoroughly review your background. If you pass our qualifications, you will be issued a gaming license that will allow you to work within the gaming and sports betting industry. You should know that holding a gaming license is a privilege, not a right, and one thing you must do to obtain this privilege is be completely honest while filling out this application.

Many applicants run into problems when asked to disclose their criminal history. You will be asked to disclose ALL crimes and/or offenses committed since the age of 18, regardless of the final outcome of the case. If you are uncertain what this means, or if you have any questions about the criminal history section of this application, please ask one of our Licensing Specialists to assist you. Failing to disclose an arrest may prevent you from obtaining a license.

Here are some examples of reasons given by applicants for failing to disclosed ALL arrests and/or offenses:

- · My attorney told me I didn't have to disclose.
- I didn't think I was arrested, because I only got a ticket/summons.
- I didn't think the arrest had anything to do with gaming.
- I didn't think the arrest was still on my record.

None of the above are acceptable reasons for not disclosing an arrest. Please take your time and utilize our staff if you have any questions about filling out this application. Thank you again for your interest in becoming part of Colorado's gaming industry.

Sincerely,

Christopher Schroder Director

Colorado Division of Gaming

Colorado Division of Gaming STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

I understand the license being issued today is still subject to denial pending the final results of the Division of Gaming investigation of my background. This temporary license will become permanent upon the final results of the background investigation unless I receive notification otherwise. Upon receipt of a Notice of Denial, I agree to immediately surrender my identification badge to the Division of Gaming. I understand such a denial will be effective immediately. I understand I may appeal the denial of my application, and until a determination is made of that appeal, I cannot possess a gaming license. I understand I would have no right to work in any capacity that requires a gaming license unless the denial of my gaming license is reversed by an order of the Colorado Limited Gaming Control Commission.

I understand I am responsible for knowing and complying with state laws and regulations governing limited gaming. I understand I may obtain or view these documents at any of the Division of Gaming offices. I understand I am being made aware of the following regulations and agree to comply with them:

- I am required to notify the Lakewood office of the Division of Gaming online or in writing of any arrest, criminal charge, or conviction pending against me within 10 days of such arrest, charge or conviction. This notification requirement shall not apply to non-felony traffic violations unless they result in suspension or revocation of a driver's license, are based on allegations of driving under the influence or impairment of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or result in me being taken into custody. [Regulation 30-405(4)] In addition, infractions which must be reported include reckless driving, leaving the scene of an accident (hit and run), driving under denial, suspension, or revocation.
- I may pay a $5 fee to obtain a duplicate license. (Regulation 30-323) Cash is not accepted. Checks, credit cards, and money orders only.
- I am required to renew my gaming license 30 days before the expiration of the license I am being issued. [Regulation 30-302(2)] (Note: You should receive a renewal application in the mail 60-90 days prior to your expiration date, but you are still ultimately responsible to obtain a renewal application if you do not receive one in the mail and to file 30 days before expiration.)
- If I allow my gaming license to expire for even one day and then try to reapply, I must submit an original license application along with the original application fee. [Regulation 30-303]

I understand during the period in which I hold a gaming license, I must:

- File state and federal income tax returns;
- Remain current on all state and federal tax and other governmental obligations, including any present and/or future payment plans;
- Remain current on all government-insured student loan obligations, including any present and/or future payment plans;
- · Remain current on all child support obligations, including any present and/or future payment plans.

I understand the Division of Gaming will perform a background check one year from the month in which my license is being issued to check whether I have filed necessary tax returns and remained current on the government obligations listed above. I understand if the Division of Gaming contacts me regarding any issues associated with this annual check, I will provide any information the Division of Gaming requests to show my continued suitability to hold a gaming license.

I understand I am responsible to notify the Division of Gaming office in writing when I have a change in name, residence address, mailing address or phone number, since all correspondence is sent to my last known address. Failure to notify the Division could result in my not receiving approval letters, renewal applications, legal notices, and other correspondence.

I have read all of the above information and understand my responsibilities as a gaming licensee. I further understand that failure to comply with any law, regulation, or the provisions of this Statement may be grounds for disciplinary action, including but not limited to the suspension or revocation of my gaming license and a monetary penalty after an administrative hearing.

NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing. 1 These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.

- You must be provided an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later) when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement must explain the authority for collecting your fingerprints and associated information and whether your fingerprints and associated information will be searched, shared, or retained.2
- You must be advised in writing of the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your FBI criminal history record as set forth at 28 CFR 16.34.
- You must be provided the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in your FBI criminal history record (if you have such a record).
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record.
- If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks and https://www.edo.cjis.gov.
- If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI by submitting a request via https://www.edo.cjis.gov. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
- You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.3
