I, _____, state under penalty of perjury that the entire Tribal Key Application Form, statements, attachments, and supporting schedules are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that this statement is executed with the knowledge that misrepresentation or failure to reveal information requested may be deemed sufficient cause for the refusal to issue a gaming license by the State of Colorado. COLORADO
Department of Revenue
Specialized Business Group—Gaming

1707 Cole Blvd., Suite 300
Lakewood, CO 80401

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a licensed gaming employee. Before you submit your application, I want to make you aware of a few facts.

The casino and sports betting industries in Colorado are among of the most scrutinized businesses in the state, because Colorado citizens want the industry and everyone involved in it free from even the hint of any corruption or deceit. That's why we take our regulation of the industry very seriously, including the issuance of licenses.

During the licensing process, we will conduct a thorough check of your background. If you pass our qualifications, you will be issued a gaming license that will allow you to work in a casino. You should know that a gaming license is a privilege, not a right. And one thing you must do to obtain this privilege is be completely honest on your license application.

In particular, we ask you on page 3 of the application: "...since you turned age 18, have you ever been arrested, served with a criminal summons, charged with, or convicted of ANY crime or offense in any manner?" The application goes on to tell you to explain ALL such arrests or charges no matter the final outcome.

Did you list ALL arrests and charges since age 18? Are you clear about what you need to disclose? If not, then ask someone at the front desk to assist you and answer any questions you might have. Here are some of the excuses we have heard from people who have failed to disclose arrests to us:

- My attorney told me I didn't have to disclose.
- I didn't think I was arrested, because I only got a ticket.
- I didn't think the arrest had anything to do with gaming.
- I didn't think that was still on my record.

But there is no excuse not to disclose an arrest. You have been informed throughout the application to disclose ALL arrests. And you have just been informed again: You will not necessarily be denied a license if you have ever been arrested, but you will be denied if you fail to disclose any arrest.

Sincerely,

Christopher Schroder
Director
Colorado Division of Gaming

I have read and understand this letter.
